Specialist Program Information

Specialist Music Technology

The Music Technology Program successfully applied to the Department of Education for endorsement as a Specialist Program in 2011 for commencement in 2012. Enrolments in Music Technology have steadily increased and enrolment applications for the 2013 class exceeded places available. The educational pathway has been firmly established through to Certificate III in Music Technical Production in Year 12. The program continues to attract industry support and recognition through developing partnerships with local event management companies, the City of Cockburn and recording artists including Courtney Murphy and John Butler.

Students also perform in numerous corporate and community events throughout the year. The Specialist Music Technology Program has rapidly gained a reputation for excellence in contemporary music. Our students are in high demand for performances all over Perth.

Specialist Touch Football Program

The Specialist Touch Football Program maintains a high profile in the school and wider community. The Senior Girls Team won their sixth consecutive State Title while all other teams played off in finals. Funds from the $50000 NAB Schools First Award 2010 were used to reduce registration, transportation, uniform and playing costs for students. They were also used to help send a team to compete in Queensland.

Staff and students have been working in collaboration with Touch Football WA to develop junior touch in the region, especially in the primary school age groups. Lakeland SHS students conducted several coaching clinics and competitions for primary schools in 2012. A full Year 8 class in 2013 provides good indication that the sport is developing in the region and that players identify Lakeland SHS as a school which offers significant player development opportunities. Four teachers from Lakeland SHS have coaching/administration roles for state teams.
